23. Motor vehicles observed in Bad Vöslau military post included truck [redacted] 25X1
[redacted] and weapon carrier [redacted] parked near No. 13 [redacted]
Soviet; van-like truck [redacted] and truck [redacted] both with officers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets, coming from the [redacted]; and van-like truck [redacted] [redacted] with driver wearing black-bordered blue epaulets and truck [redacted] 25X1 occupied by personnel wearing black-bordered blue and red-bordered black epaulets, on the road to and from Vöslau Castle. The building No 13 on Bahn Strasse apparently was no longer occupied by the Soviets, as a sort of fair had been established by Austrian civilians in the yard and park. Source believed that the occupation of the military post was not changed although the airfield was used more intensively than previously.

~~Current~~ Bad Voeslau airfield is still occupied by some souther and liaison aircraft of the Hq Fifty-Ninth Air Army, some MIG-15s whose assignment could not be to the bomber unit in Debracen.
